

Three years ago, The Falls Church Anglican (TFCA) conducted an investigation into allegations of sexual abuse by Jeffrey Taylor, who served as director of youth ministry at The Falls Church Episcopal (TFCE) from May 1990 to August 1999, and as director of adult discipleship at TFCE from September 1999 until February 2002.

The FBI just announced that Taylor “was arrested and made an initial appearance in court yesterday on charges of enticement of minors for illegal sexual activity and traveling with the intent to engage in illegal sexual activity with minors.”

TFCA previously provided information to law enforcement on this matter and cooperated with the FBI in its investigation. In addition, TFCA continues to provide confidential care for individuals who were impacted.

Our prayers have been, and continue to be, for the truth to come to light, for healing and care for those who were harmed, and for justice to be served. The FBI's action is an important step in this regard.

For more information, please see the Department of Justice's press release. Anyone with information not yet provided to this investigation or who may have been a victim of Jeffrey Taylor is encouraged to contact the FBI Washington Field Office at this link.
